DARE TO DANCE · DARE TO DREAM

Movement Medicine is an improvisational movement practice rooted in the traditions of ecstatic dance. It gives us access to the energy and potency we need to make our whole life a work of art.

In this workshop, you will:

- Learn to trust and follow the inspiration of the dancer within
- Give the body, heart and mind a 'spring clean' releasing what no longer serves you
- Welcome the return of the spring and the light into your dance
- Refresh and sharpen your sense of direction and your commitment to being who you are and giving all you've got
- Embodiment and dance your prayers for yourself, others and the world

This workshop is an opportunity to engage in a deep, joyous, dancing journey of personal renewal through Movement Medicine practice.
