DARE TO DANCE · DARE TO DREAM

Sexual energy is the Source of creation. We all have the possibility of experiencing this energy as a powerful, healthy, and creative source for living a dynamic and inspired life. Beyond guilt, blame and shame, there is movement, connection and the awakening of a sexuality that is profound, healing and sacred.

We've been taught to suppress, push, deny and denigrate what is natural. It is a rare human in our culture who has been encouraged in the development and understanding of their sexual energy. Movement Medicine is a potent catalyst for healing and celebrating the Source within you.

In this workshop you will:

- Learn to embody and dance with the natural movement of your sexual energy
- Become aware of and learn to release some of the shadows around your sexuality
- Recover your innocence and power as a sexual being by aligning body, heart and mind
- Realise the life-affirming potential of sexual energy expressed through movement

There will be no nakedness on this workshop. Whatever your history, you are invited to come and dance for your life! Embodying the power of your Source in the dance of your life will help you to take up your place as an empowered human being in the circle of life.
